Tennessee Folklore Society Annual Meeting
L&N Depot and Railroad Museum, Etowah
Saturday, November 4, starting at 11:00 a.m.

The Tennessee Folklore Society will hold its Annual Meeting on Saturday, November 4, 2017 at the L&N Depot and Railroad Museum in Etowah, Tennessee. The meeting will begin at 11:00 am and conclude at approximately 3:00 pm. It is free of charge and open to the general public. Tennessee Arts Commission Folklife Program Director Bradley Hanson will inform attendees about Commission programs and recent activities. Tony Kail will present on “hoodoo” practices in West Tennessee, and Mitsutoshi Inaba will offer a summary of his research on the life and career of West Tennessee blues great John Lee “Sonny Boy” Williamson. Participants will also tour the exhibits at Etowah’s Railroad Depot and Museum. The Tennessee Folklore Society is a statewide organization of professional folklorists, arts presenters, community scholars, and others who share an interest in studying, preserving, and celebrating the rich folk arts and cultural traditions of Tennessee. Founded in 1934, the Society is now based at the Laurel Theater.

Knoxville Square Dance
with the Hellgrammites
Thursday, November 9, 8 p.m.

More traditional regional square dance, again featuring fine old-time music by the Hellgrammites with callers Leo Collins, Stan Sharp and Ruth Simmons. No special training or equipment required — all square dances will be taught and called. Live old-time music. Stan Sharp Calling. No taps.

$5 JCA Members & Students • $7 General Admission

Kelle Jolly and Will Boyd
with David Ralston and Merry Gushi
Saturday, November 11, 8 p.m.

“The Affrilachian Okinawa Americana Tour” is a mix of blues, folk and traditional Okinawa music on guitar; uke; sax and sanshin. David Ralston and Merry Gushi are from Okinawa, Japan. Kelle Jolly and Will Boyd live here in Knoxville where they play American traditional music, jazz and blues. These four musical friends met years ago at a world music festival in Tokyo. Since then, music has brought them together with a bigger purpose: to show the world how people of different backgrounds and styles can come together in harmony. David, Merry, Kelle and Will’s set includes down-home blues, folk music and Okinawa songs.

$12 JCA Members, Students, Seniors • $13 General Advance

Annual Thanksgiving Supper & Harp Singing
Epworth Old Harp
Wednesday, November 22, 6:30 p.m.

Jubilee Community Arts and the Epworth Old Harp Singers host our annual Thanksgiving get together. A potluck supper will be followed by a community singing from the New Harp of Columbia. Shape note singing has a long history in East Tennessee and the Epworth Old Harp Singers are actively carrying on that tradition. The New Harp of Columbia was first published in 1863 in Knoxville, based on the 1848 Harp of Columbia, also published in East Tennessee; a comprehensive edition restorin all omitted songs was published in 2001 thanks to the tireless efforts of singer Larry Olszewski. This year’s singing will serve as the annual memorial singing in honor of Larry. Copies of the restored New Harp of Columbia will be available for loan.

Free • Bring a dish & sing for your supper

Maggie Longmire
CD Release
Thursday, November 30, 8 p.m.

Longtime Knoxville singer/songwriter Maggie Longmire and band will be debuting her latest recording Baby It’s Time at a CD release performance at the Laurel Theater. With all new original material and some of Knoxville’s finest musicians this should be a great evening of music ranging from blues to Americana. Daniel Kimbro well known bassist/guitarist is the co-producer of this project and brings his immense talent to the stage along with several special musical guests including Will Boyd and Greg Horne.

$17 General Day of Show • $9 Children 12 & under

Jubal
Local Songwriting
Friday, December 1, 8 p.m.

Taylor Kress and Bonnie Simmons are back at the Laurel performing haunting acoustic music with harmony vocals and guitar. Both grew up around Knoxville and played separately for years in a number of groups. Taylor played with the Collies and later solo. Bonnie has been singing ever since she was a child with her family members and friends in a number of settings and with the strong female harmony driven group Mad Sirron. Bonnie began singing solo and writing on her own while in Montreal, Canada. Their voices joined for the first time on WDVX's Blue Plate Special and have performed together ever since. Bloodroot was their first album and was followed by Warm Regards released earlier this year.

Knoxville Square Dance
with the Hellgrammites
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 8 P.M.
Experience the revival of Appalachian square dancing in Knoxville with live old-time music by the Hellgrammites and calling by Leo Collins, Stan Sharp and Ruth Simmons. Everyone is welcome, come as you are and bring your friends. No taps.

$5 JCA Members & Seniors • $7 General Admission

John Doyle
Irish music
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 8 P.M.
From a musical family in Dublin, John was sixteen when he went on the road with Chanting House, a group which he formed with Susan McKeown and which eventually included such great players as Seamus Egan, Eileen Ivers, Donogh Hennessy, and Brian Doyle. As a member of Solas, John performed internationally to sold out audiences and appeared on many television and radio programs, including NBC’s Today Show, A Prairie Home Companion, Mountain Stage, E-Town and World Cafe. As part of that critically acclaimed group, he also received three NAIRD awards and a Grammy nomination.

$13 JCA Members, Students, Seniors • $14 General Advance
$17 General Day of Show • $9 Children 12 & under

Tennessee Schmaltz
Klezmer
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9, 8 P.M.
Originating mainly in Eastern Europe, klezmer music is documented in early recordings of Jewish immigrants to America as far back as 1895. After a period of decline, an energetic revival of this music beginning in the 1970s spread from New York, Boston and San Francisco to many other parts of the country, including the Knoxville area. Tennessee Schmaltz develops the tradition of Jewish klezmer in America, adding country and bluegrass sounds to the mix of East European wedding tunes, Yiddish theater and music hall, cantorial singing, and popular traditions of the old and new worlds. The band has performed in concerts to sellout crowds as well as at weddings, bar mitzvahs and bluegrass festivals.

$12 JCA Members, Students, Seniors • $13 General Advance
$15 General Day of Show • $8 Children 12 & under
