Knoxville Square Dance
Thursday, September 13, 8 P.M.

The Knoxville Square Dance is back on second Thursdays at the Laurel. Traditional regional square dance, with fine old-time music by the Spring Lizards and callers Leo Collins and Stan Sharp. No experience or partner is necessary and the atmosphere is casual. No taps, please.

$5 JCA Members & Students • $7 General Admission

Four Leaf Peat
Irish Music
Saturday, September 29, 8 P.M.

Born out of Irish traditional music in pub sessions, Four Leaf Peat brings together musicians from various backgrounds. The band is influenced by Ireland’s traditional pipers, fiddlers and singers; they owe a debt to innovators of the music such as the Bothy Band, Planxy, Dervish, Lunasa, and Danu. Four Leaf Peat is Chad Beauchaine on Fiddle; Gil Draper on guitar, bouzouki and mandolin; Rick Hall on hammer dulcimer, bones and bodhran; and Jason Herrera on vocals, bodhran, flute and whistle. Whether it’s lively jigs and reels, slow airs, or songs, the spirit that gave birth to Irish traditional music can be felt in every set.

$12 JCA Members, Students, Seniors • $13 General Advance
$15 General Day of Show • $8 Children 12 & under

Van Eaton
Live Recording Session
Friday, October 5, 8 P.M.

Celebrate East Tennessee songwriter Van Eaton’s new release Love, Laughter and Loss. Van’s song “It’s Just the Night” was covered by Del McCoury on the album of the same name. This show will feature both brand new and some well known original songs. Van plans to record this show for release on an upcoming CD. He will be joined by a few great musical guests for an evening of music and fun.

Workshop on Live Sound Mixing
At the Laurel Theater
Thursday, September 20, 6 P.M.

As part of its community service and education programs, Jubilee Community Arts is offering a workshop which will provide an introduction to audio setup, equipment, and mixing for concerts. Designed for musicians and volunteers interested in a basic introduction to live sound mixing, this workshop will present the basics of microphone usage, gain settings, monitor and house mixing, house and channel EQ, and use of mixing boards.

There is no charge for the workshop, but participants are encouraged to volunteer 6 hours of time over the next year to aid production of Jubilee Community Arts activities.

The workshop will be presented by Dr. Lou Gross, Volunteer Sound Engineer for the Laurel Theater. The workshop date is September 20 from 6-9 pm at the Laurel Theater, 16th and Laurel Ave. To register call Jubilee Community Arts at 522-5851.

Free • Advance Registration Required

Greg Horne & Tenzin Chopak
Songwriting
Friday, October 12, 8 p.m.

Greg Horne is a familiar face at the Laurel Theater, having perfomed at many Jubilee Festivals, contra dances, and with Laurel regulars R.B. Morris and Jay Clark. For this special show Greg is excited to welcome his own brother Tenzin Chopak to the Laurel stage. Greg and Tenzin grew up in Oak Ridge in a family that valued art and music as vital. Though both are active performers, they rarely get to perform together.

Greg’s songs show a passion for roots sounds from old time to honky tonk and rock. In addition to performing in area bands, he has written over a dozen instructional books, released an electric band album, Working on Engines, taught songwriting workshops, and toured with Nashville Americana band Wild Ponies. Tenzin Chopak is an artist, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist based in Ithaca, NY. In 1999 he traveled from East Tennessee to North India. While studying Tibetan language and religion there, he was given the name “Tenzin Chopak”. For the following twelve years in upstate New York, Tenzin kept music a quiet part of his life. Tenzin’s upcoming sixth studio album will be released in late 2018.

Frank Lee & Allie Burbrink
Old-Time Duo
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 8 P.M.

Frank Lee and Allie Burbrink, of Bryson City, are a harmony-powered old time duo. Their April 2018 release, Roll On, Clouds, showcases their favorite songs from over two years of performing together. These pieces range from blues tradition to bluegrass classics, yet remain rooted in the old time aesthetic.

Frank’s nylon string fretless banjo is the dominant instrument, with guitar, slide guitar, and Allie’s banjo and harmonica adding to the musical texture. Recording engineer Bruce Lang supplies upright bass on several tracks. Frank and Allie, core duo of long-standing string band The Freight Hoppers, have traveled extensively as touring musicians. Frank, a founding member of The Freight Hoppers, has impressed audiences all over the United States, Canada, and northern Europe with his signature clawhammer sound. Allie is a founding member of The Whipstitch Sallies, a band from Indiana that toured in the Midwest, North Carolina, Colorado, and Hawaii.

Tennesssee Folklore Society
Based at the Laurel

Jubilee Community Arts is proud to be the publisher of the Tennessee Folklore Society Bulletin. The Bulletin is the oldest regional folklore journal in the United States, founded in 1934. While not specifically an academic journal, leading scholars of folklore have published in the Bulletin including Archer Taylor, Henry Glassie, Stith Thompson, Archie Green, Wayland Hand, D.K. Wilgus, Herbert Halpert, and Alan Dundes. Articles from the Bulletin have frequently been reprinted in anthologies and textbooks, and are required reading in many folklore classes.

JCA Executive Director Brent Cantrell, a longtime member and former president of the Society, serves as secretary-editor. JCA Concert Manager Toby Koosman is co-editor and treasurer of the organization. The Bulletin is published with support from the Tennessee Arts Commission.
