Unless otherwise noted all events are at the Laurel Theater, 1538 Laurel Ave (16th St & Laurel Ave in Fort Sanders)

Performing Arts of the Southern Appalachian Region and to nurture the cultural milieu responsible for the birth and evolution of these and related art forms.
Workshop on Live Sound Mixing

At the Laurel Theater
Thursday, September 5, 6-9 P.M.

As part of its community service and education programs, Jubilee Community Arts is offering a workshop which will provide an introduction to audio setup, equipment, and mixing for concerts. Designed for musicians and volunteers interested in a basic introduction to live sound mixing, this workshop will present the basics of microphone usage, gain settings, monitor and house mixing, house and channel EQ, and use of mixing boards.

There is no charge for the workshop, but participants are encouraged to volunteer 6 hours of time over the next year to aid production of Jubilee Community Arts activities.

The workshop will be presented by Dr. Lou Gross, Volunteer Sound Engineer for the Laurel Theater. The workshop date is September 5 from 6-9 pm at the Laurel Theater, 16th and Laurel Ave. To register call Jubilee Community Arts at 522-5851.

Free • Advance Registration Required

Beppe Gambetta

Acoustic Guitar
Thursday, Sept 26, 8 P.M.

While Beppe still lives in his native Genova, he travels to North America at least three times each year. His reputation in the U.S. and Canada is reinforced by his participation in festivals like the Walnut Valley Festival in Winfield, Kansas, Merlefest in North Carolina, the Four Corners Festival in Colorado and Canadian Folk Festivals in Winnipeg and Edmonton, as well as events like the radio shows All Things Considered and E-Town. Beppe has performed with David Grisman, Gene Parsons, Doc Watson and Norman Blake. From his unique background as an Italian musician in love with both American roots music as well as the music of his native country, Beppe has travelled the world to dazzle and charm music enthusiasts everywhere. After eleven CDs, DVDs, teaching books and collaborations with many other top-flight musicians, Gambetta is increasingly known as one of the true living master innovators of the acoustic guitar.

John McCutcheon

Songs and Stories
Saturday, October 19, 8 P.M.

Legendary performer John McCutcheon is known for his interpretation on banjo and hammer dulcimer of Appalachian standards as well as for original songs such as the historical ballad “Christmas in the Trenches,” topical songs and children’s material. Early in his musical career he was active in exploring the folklore of East Tennessee, bringing traditional fiddlers, ballad singers, dancers and Old Harp singers to the Laurel Theater and associated venues as the first music director of Jubilee Community Arts. John contributed a chapter to the iconic Cumberland Avenue Revisited anthology edited by Jack Rendtro.

Tennessee Folklore Society
Based at the Laurel

Jubilee Community Arts is proud to be the publisher of the semiannual Tennessee Folklore Society Bulletin. The Bulletin is the oldest regional folklore journal in the United States, founded in 1934. While not specifically an academic journal, leading scholars of folklore have published in the Bulletin including Archer Taylor, Henry Glassie, Stith Thompson, Archie Green, Wayland Hand, D.K. Wilgus, Herbert Halpert, and Alan Dundes. Articles from the Bulletin have frequently been reprinted in anthologies and textbooks, and are required reading in many folklore classes.

The Laurel Theater is the new address of record for the Society and houses the organization’s archive. JCA Executive Director Brent Cantrell, a longtime member and former president of the Society, serves as secretary-editor. JCA Concert Manager Toby Koosman is co-editor and treasurer of the organization. The Bulletin is published with support from the Tennessee Arts Commission.

Jubilee Records

JCA Records is proud to publish songs and stories of the late Fentress County ballad singer Johnny Ray Hicks, the last publically performing singer in the family tradition that became known to the world through the recordings of his cousins Dee and Delta Hicks. Included are field recordings, live performances and a 32-page booklet containing interviews, memories and family photos documenting the life and times of this unique and unforgettable man. This recording project was funded by the Tennessee Arts Commission with additional help from the National Endowment for the Arts and the East Tennessee Foundation. Also still available, The Pine Breeze Recordings is a two-CD compilation drawn from 1975 to 1981 recordings by students of the Pine Breeze Center in Chattanooga, documenting the music of Eldia and Oscar Barbee, Homer and Calvin Chastain, Bob Douglas and Ray Brown, Russ Vandergriff, Ella Hughes, Blaine Smith and Florrie Stewart, J.R. “Peanut” Cantrell, Lee Trentham and J.D. Perkinson, Clay Turner, and the Bice Family. Funded by the Tennessee Arts Commission.

Crossville Criminal - songs and stories of the late Fentress County ballad singer Johnny Ray Hicks, the last publically performing singer in the family tradition that became known to the world through the recordings of his cousins Dee and Delta Hicks.

May Justus, the Carawan Recordings - Children’s author May Justus performs ballads and folk songs, stories, children’s songs and games remembered from her childhood in Cocke County. From fields recordings made by Guy Carawan in 1953 and 1961.
