Annual Thanksgiving Old Harp Singing
Epworth Old Harp
Wednesday, November 23, 6:30 P.M.

JCA and the Epworth Old Harp Singers host a potluck supper followed by a community singing from the New Harp of Columbia. Shape note singing has a long history in East Tennessee and the Epworth Old Harp Singers are actively carrying on that tradition. The New Harp of Columbia was first published in 1863 in Knoxville, based on the 1848 Harp of Columbia, also published in East Tennessee; a new edition was published in 2001 thanks to the tireless efforts of singer Larry Olszewski. This event also serves as the annual memorial for Larry.

Free

Kelle Jolly
Jazz and Storytelling
Friday, December 2, 8 P.M.

Originally from South Carolina, Kelle and her saxophonist husband Will Boyd make their home in East Tennessee. Kelle's music influences include Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Nina Simone and Sarah Vaughan, and her repertoire includes early regional women blues and sacred singers, among them Knoxville's Leola Manning and Ida Cox. Kelle is host of “Jazz Jam with Kelle Jolly” on WUOT. She is currently pursuing a master's degree in storytelling at ETSU.

John McCutcheon
Songs and Stories
Saturday, December 3, 8 P.M.

Legendary performer John McCutcheon is known for his interpretation on banjo and hammer dulcimer of Appalachian standards as well as for original songs such as the historical ballad “Christmas in the Trenches,” topical songs and children’s material. Early in his musical career he was active in exploring the folklore of East Tennessee, bringing traditional fiddlers, ballad singers, dancers and Old Harp singers to the Laurel Theater and associated venues as the first music director of Jubilee Community Arts. John contributed a chapter to the iconic Cumberland Avenue Revisited anthology edited by Jack Rentfro.

Dor L'Dor
Klezmer
Saturday, December 10, 8 P.M.

Knoxville klezmer band Dor L'Dor returns to the Laurel Theater for this year's Hanukkah concert. Formed in 1999 by Ken and Susan Brown, the band currently includes about a dozen musicians from a variety of musical backgrounds, including classical training and jazz performance. Klezmer originated in Eastern Europe and borrows from various musical traditions of that region as well as from religious liturgy, musical theater, and American jazz.
